Edinburgh Castle is an ancient and historical building situated on a precipitous hill in the centre of the town. This almost impregnable position has made the hill the site for a castle from very early times. Up these heights Claverhouse climbed to interview Gordon with the object of persuading him to raise his standard on behalf of James Stuart. The ancient Scottish regalia is stored here.

I thank you much for your P.C. from London and for the cable. which was much appreciated by everybody. I ought to have written sooner but Mother has been on the sick. This time week and I wasn't just sure if I could manage a run on Friday. Mother thinks it better to wait. so bring your cable to. tomorrow afternoon and we might have an early tea and go out after that. I glad you had such a good week-end. I don't know whether it was influenza or a cold attack Mother had - or a mixture of both. We were at Trudy's with her fare.
